PREAMBLE

We, baptized members of the Church of Christ, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, desiring to unite together to preach the Word, administer the sacraments, and carry out God's mission, do hereby adopt this Constitution and solemnly pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1

NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01. The name of this Congregation shall be Peace Lutheran Church.
- C1.02. For the purpose of this Constitution and the accompanying Bylaws, the Congregation of Peace Lutheran Church is hereinafter designated as "this Congregation."
- C1.03. This Congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Idaho.

Chapter 2

CONFESSION OF FAITH

- C2.01. This Congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- C2.02. This Congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
  - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
  - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
  - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- C2.03. This Congregation accepts the original confessional writings in the Book of Concord.
- C2.04. God creates and sustains the priesthood of all believers for God's mission in the world. All baptized members of this Congregation are priests called by God to ministry in their daily lives.

Chapter 3

FULFILLMENT OF MISSION

- C3.01. This Congregation shall, from time to time, adopt a mission statement, specified in the Bylaws, which will provide specific direction for its ministries.
- C3.02. To participate in God's mission, this Congregation, as a part of the Church, shall:
  - a. Worship God in proclamation of the Word and administration of the Sacraments and through lives of prayer, praise, thanksgiving, witness, and service.

- b. Proclaim God's saving Gospel of justification by grace for Christ's sake through faith alone, according to the apostolic witness in the Holy Scripture, preserving and transmitting the Gospel faithfully to future generations.
- c. Carry out Christ's Great Commission by reaching out to all people to bring them to faith in Christ and by doing all ministry with a global awareness consistent with the understanding of God as Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier of all.
- d. Serve in response to God's love to meet human needs, caring for the sick and the aged, advocating dignity and justice for all people, working for peace and reconciliation among the nations, and standing with the poor and powerless, and committing itself to their needs.
- e. Nurture its members in the Word of God so as to grow in faith and hope and love, to see daily life as the primary setting for the exercise of their Christian calling, and to use the gifts of the Spirit for their life together and for their calling in the world.
- f. Manifest the unity given to the people of God by living together in the love of Christ and by joining with other Christians in prayer and action to express and preserve the unity which the Spirit gives.

- C3.03. To fulfill the ministry to which we have been called, this Congregation shall:
- a. Provide services of worship at which the Word of God is preached and the Sacraments are administered.
  - b. Provide pastoral care and assist all members to participate in this ministry.
  - c. Challenge, equip, and support all members in carrying out their calling in their daily lives and in their Congregation.
  - d. Teach the Word of God.
  - e. Witness to the reconciling Word of God in Christ, reaching out to all people.
  - f. Respond to human need, work for justice and peace, care for the sick and the suffering, and participate responsibly in society.
  - g. Motivate its members to provide financial support for the Congregation's ministry and other such ministries as designated by this Congregation.
  - h. Foster and participate in relationships with other Congregations.

Chapter 4

MEMBERSHIP

- C4.01. Members of this Congregation shall be those baptized persons on the roll of this Congregation at the time that this Constitution is adopted and those who are admitted thereafter and who have declared and maintain their membership in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and its Bylaws.

THE PASTOR(S)

- C5.01. Authority to call or remove a pastor(s), as specified in the Bylaws, shall be in this Congregation by at least a two-thirds majority ballot vote of Congregational members present and voting at a meeting for that purpose.
- C5.02. The specific duties of the pastor(s), compensation, and other matters pertaining to the service of the pastor(s) shall be included in a letter of call and as set forth in the Bylaws.

Chapter 6
CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

C6.01. The annual meeting of this Congregation shall be held at a time specified in the Bylaws.

Chapter 7
CHURCH COUNCIL

C7.01. The voting membership of the Church Council shall be as provided for in the Bylaws of this Constitution.

Chapter 8
AMENDMENTS

C8.01. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by at least twenty percent of the voting members or by the Church Council. Proposals must be filed in writing with the Church Council 60 days before formal consideration by this Congregation at a regular or special Congregational Meeting called for that purpose. The Church Council shall notify the Congregation's members by U.S. Mail and/or electronic mail, when available, of the proposal together with the council's recommendations at least 30 days in advance of the meeting.

C8.02. An amendment to this constitution, proposed under C8.01. shall:

- a. Be approved at a legally called Congregational Meeting according to this Constitution by a majority vote of those present and voting;
- b. be ratified without change at the next annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting; and
- c. have the effective date included in the resolution and noted in the Constitution.

Chapter 9
BYLAWS

C9.01. This Congregation may adopt Bylaws. No Bylaw may conflict with this Constitution.

C9.02. Bylaws may be adopted or amended at any legally called meeting of this Congregation with a quorum present by a majority vote of those voting members present and voting.

C9.03. Changes to the Bylaws may be proposed by any voting member provided, however, that such additions or amendments be submitted in writing to the Church Council at least 60 days before a regular or special Congregational Meeting called for that purpose and that the Church Council notify the Congregation's members by U.S. Mail and/or electronic mail, when available, of the proposal with the Council's recommendations at least 30 days in advance of the Congregational Meeting.

Chapter 10
CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

C10.01. The Church Council may enact continuing resolutions. Such continuing resolutions may not conflict with the Constitution or Bylaws of this Congregation.

C10.02. Continuing resolutions shall be enacted or amended by a two-thirds vote of all voting members of the Church Council.

Chapter 11

INDEMNIFICATION

C11.01. Consistent with the provisions of the laws under which this Congregation is incorporated, this Congregation may adopt provisions providing indemnification for each person who, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Church Council member, officer, employee, agent, or other member of any committee of this Congregation, was or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding.

BL7.02. A member's place on the Church Council shall be declared vacant if the member

- a. ceases to be a voting member of this Congregation; or
- b. is absent from three successive regular meetings of the Church Council without prohibitive cause.

Consistent with the laws of the State of Idaho, this Congregation may adopt procedures for the removal of a member of the Church Council in other circumstances.

BL7.03. Members of the Church Council, except the pastor(s), shall be elected by written ballot at the annual meeting of the Congregation to serve for two years or until their successors are elected. Such members shall be eligible to serve no more than two full terms consecutively. Their terms shall begin at the close of the annual meeting of this Congregation at which they are elected.

BL7.04. Should a member's place on the Church Council be declared vacant, the Church Council shall elect, by a majority vote, a successor until the next annual meeting of the Congregation. Individuals who have served less than one-half of a regular term shall be eligible for nomination and election to a full term.

BL7.05. The Church Council shall have general oversight of the life and activities of this Congregation, and in particular its worship life, to the end that everything be done in accordance with the Word of God and the faith and practice of the Lutheran Confessions. The duties of the Church Council shall include the following:

- a. To lead this Congregation in stating its mission, to do long-range planning, to set goals and priorities, and to evaluate its activities in light of its mission and goals.
- b. To seek to involve all members of this Congregation in worship, learning, witness, service, and support.
- c. To oversee and provide for the administration of this Congregation to enable it to fulfill its functions and perform its mission.
- d. To maintain supportive relationships with the pastor(s) and staff and help them annually to evaluate the fulfillment of their calling or employment.
- e. To be examples individually and corporately of the style of life and ministry expected of all baptized persons.
- f. To promote a Congregational climate of peace and goodwill, and, as differences and conflicts arise, to endeavor to foster mutual understanding.
- g. To arrange for pastoral service during the sickness or absence of the pastor.
- h. To emphasize partnership with the national or regional church body with which this Congregation is affiliated as well as cooperation with other Congregations, both Lutheran and non-Lutheran.
- i. To seek out and encourage qualified persons to prepare for the ministry of the Gospel.

- BL7.06. The Church Council shall be responsible for the financial and property matters of this Congregation, which shall be made available upon request.
- a. The Church Council shall be the board of directors of this Congregation, and as such shall be responsible for maintaining and protecting its property and management of its business and fiscal affairs. It shall have the powers and be subject to the obligations that pertain to such boards under the laws of the State of Idaho, except as otherwise provided herein.
  - b. The Church Council shall not have the authority to buy, sell, or encumber real property unless specifically authorized to do so by a meeting of the Congregation.
  - c. The Church Council may incur expenditures of up to three percent of the current annual budget for items not included in the budget.
  - d. The Church Council shall prepare an annual budget for adoption by this Congregation, shall supervise the expenditure of funds in accordance therewith following its adoption, and may incur obligations of more than $10,000 in excess of the anticipated receipts only after approval by a Congregational Meeting. The budget shall include support of certain designated ministries outside of this Congregation.
  - e. The Church Council shall ascertain that the financial affairs of this Congregation are being conducted efficiently, giving particular attention to the prompt payment of all obligation.
  - f. The Church Council shall be responsible for this Congregation's investments and its total insurance program.
- BL7.07. The Church Council shall provide for an annual review of the membership roster.
- BL7.08. The Church Council shall be responsible for the employment and supervision of the lay employees of this Congregation.
- BL7.09. The Church Council shall submit a comprehensive report to this Congregation at the annual meeting.
- BL7.10. The Church Council normally shall meet once a month. Special meetings may be called by the Pastor(s) or the President, and shall be called by the President at the request of at least one-half of its members. Notice of each special meeting shall be given to all who are entitled to be present.
- BL7.11. All meetings of the Church Council shall be defined as open except for executive sessions or to discuss personnel matters.
- BL7.12. A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of a majority of the members of the Church Council.

Chapter 8 OFFICERS

- BL8.01. The officers of the Church Council shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Duties of the officers are specified in these bylaws.
- BL8.02. The Church Council shall elect its officers, and they also shall serve as the officers of this Congregation and shall serve for one year or until their successors are elected. Their terms shall begin immediately upon their election by the Church Council.

- BL8.03. No officer shall hold more than one office at a time. No elected officer shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms in the same office, and having served two consecutive terms shall not be eligible to be elected to the same office for two years.
- BL8.04. President
The President shall preside at meetings of the Church Council and the Congregation. The President shall be eligible to cast a vote only in the event of a tie vote.
- BL8.05. Vice-President
The Vice-President shall serve as President in the absence of the President or in the event the President is unable to perform the duties of the office.

- BL9.01. The officers of the Congregation and the pastor(s) as ex-officio shall constitute the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee:
- a. Shall ensure that decisions of the Church Council are carried out.
  - b. Any new initiatives are not to be determined by the Executive Committee.
  - c. The President of the Congregation shall call meetings as required and also at the request of the Pastor(s).
  - d. Minutes of meetings of the Executive Committee shall be kept by the Secretary and shall be submitted to the next meeting of the Church Council.
- BL9.02. Executive Committee shall oversee the Personnel Committee of this Congregation and shall:
- a. Work in conjunction with the Personnel Committee to:
    - 1. Function as a networking group with a responsibility and commitment to recruit, monitor, and nurture a multiple number of paid staff.
    - 2. Listen to employee grievances.
    - 3. Assist the Church Council in crisis situations with employed staff.
  - b. Make recommendations to Church Council regarding discipline of employee performance.

Chapter 10

CONGREGATIONAL COMMITTEES AND MINISTRY TEAMS

- BL10.01. An Audit Committee of three voting members shall be elected by the Church Council. Audit Committee members shall not be members of the Church Council. Term of office shall be three years, with one member elected each year. Members shall be eligible for re-election. The Audit Committee shall:
- a. Be responsible for the annual verification of the Congregational financial records.
  - b. Conduct the audit after notification by Church Council that the financial records are ready for review.
  - c. Elect its chairperson and secretary.
  - d. Prepare a report to be presented by the Committee Chairperson to the March meeting of the Church Council.
- BL10.02. A Budget Development Committee shall be appointed annually by the Church Council and shall:
- a. Be appointed by the Church Council at its September meeting each year.
  - b. Be composed of the Pastor(s), Council President, Council Vice President, Congregational Treasurer, Financial Secretary, and two members appointed at large from the Congregation.
  - c. Invite Ministry Teams to submit funding requests for the following year.
  - d. Seek advice from the Church Council as to appropriate salary adjustments for Pastor(s) and lay staff.
  - e. Based on anticipated ministry needs for the coming year, develop a tentative budget for presentation to the Church Council no later than the November meeting.

- BL10.03. When a pastoral vacancy occurs, a Call Committee of six voting members shall be elected by this Congregation. Term of office will terminate upon installation of the newly called pastor. The Call Committee shall:
- a. Be comprised of six voting members, plus two active alternates. Two youth representatives shall be invited when the Call Committee is evaluating candidates for a pastoral call.
  - b. Act in accordance with the following guidelines:
    - 1) Complete a Congregational profile.
    - 2) Through Congregational surveys and/or forums, determine the type of ministry desired by this Congregation.
    - 3) Seek names of pastoral candidates from Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ and also consider candidates that have been nominated by members of the Congregation.
    - 4) Evaluate the candidates referred by Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ.
    - 5) Interview selected prospective candidates.
    - 6) A candidate for the office of Pastor must have a two-thirds vote of the Call Committee before he/she is presented to the Congregation.
    - 7) Any dissenting member of the Call Committee may present a minority report at the meeting of the Congregation.
    - 8) The Call Committee shall develop a Letter of Call based on the provisions of Chapter 14 of these Bylaws, and in consultation with the Church Council.
- BL10.04. A Nominating Committee, of four voting members, shall be elected by the Congregation at the annual meeting and as such shall:
- a. Prepare a slate of candidates for members of the Church Council. Candidates shall be from active voting members of the Congregation.
  - b. Mail, either by U.S. Mail and/or electronic mail, when available, to every voting member of the Congregation information regarding those persons nominated to serve as Church Council members no later than two weeks before the election.
  - c. Prepare a slate of candidates for other Congregational positions, such as representative(s) to regional and national gatherings of the LCMC, and any other positions as may be required
- BL10.05. A Personnel Committee, consisting of three voting members of the Congregation shall be appointed by the Church Council on an annual basis. The duties and responsibilities of the Committee are specified in Continuing Resolutions.
- BL10.06. Other committees and ministry teams of this Congregation may be formed, as the need arises, by decision of the Church Council.
- BL10.07. Ministry Teams
Duties and responsibilities of the various Ministry Teams are specified in Continuing Resolutions.
- BL10.08. Ad Hoc Committees
Ad Hoc Committees or Task Forces may be appointed as needed with duties and responsibilities as specified by the Church Council.
- BL10.09. The pastor of this Congregation shall be an ex officio, a member of all committees, ministry teams, and boards of the Congregation.

Chapter 11

ORGANIZATIONS WITHIN THE CONGREGATION

BL11.01. All organizations within this Congregation shall exist to aid it in ministering to the members of this Congregation and to all persons who can be reached with the Gospel of Christ. As outgrowths and expressions of this Congregation's life, the organizations are subject to its oversight and direction.

BL11.02. Special interest groups may be organized only after authorization has been given by the Church Council or by the Congregation.

Chapter 12

MEMBERSHIP

BL12.01. Membership

Members shall be classified as follows:

- a. Baptized members are those persons who have been received by the Sacrament of Holy Baptism in this Congregation, or, having been previously baptized in the name of the Triune God, have been received by certificate of transfer from other Lutheran Congregations or by affirmation of faith.
- b. Confirmed members are baptized persons who have been confirmed in this Congregation, those who have been received by adult baptism or by transfer as confirmed members from other Lutheran Congregations, or baptized persons received by affirmation of faith, and all of whom have made a commitment to discipleship in this Congregation.
- c. Voting members are confirmed members. Such confirmed members, during the current or preceding calendar year, shall have communed in this Congregation and shall have made a contribution of record to this Congregation.
- d. Associate members are persons who have a relationship with this Congregation. They have all the privileges and duties of membership except voting rights and eligibility for elected offices or membership on the Church Council of this Congregation

BL12.02. All applications for confirmed membership shall be submitted to and shall require the approval of the Church Council.

BL12.03. It shall be the privilege and duty of members of this Congregation to:

- a. Make regular use of the means of grace, both Word and sacraments;
- b. Live a Christian life in accordance with the Word of God and the teachings of the Lutheran church; and
- c. Support the work of this Congregation through contributions of their time, abilities, and financial support as biblical stewards.

BL12.04. Members of this Congregation shall be considered inactive and may be removed from membership whenever it has been determined by the Church Council that:

- a. They have not communed during the preceding twelve months, and
- b. They have made no financial offering of record over the same time period, and
- c. They have withdrawn from the life and mission of the Congregation.

BL12.05. Membership in this Congregation shall be terminated by any of the following:

- a. Death;
- b. Resignation;
- c. Transfer;

- d. Release by Church Council (BL 12.04);
- e. Disciplinary action by the Church Council or Congregation (BL13.03.)

Such persons who have been removed from the roll of members shall remain persons for whom the Congregation has a continuing pastoral concern.

Chapter 13

DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS AND ADJUDICATION

- BL13.01. Denial of the Christian faith as described in this Constitution, conduct grossly unbecoming a member of the Church of Christ, or persistent trouble-making in this Congregation are sufficient cause for discipline of a member. Prior to disciplinary action, reconciliation will be attempted following Matthew 18:15-17, proceeding through these successive steps:
- a. Private admonition by the pastor;
  - b. Admonition by the pastor in the presence of two or three witnesses, and
  - c. The member may be requested to appear before the Church Council.

If, for any reason, the pastor is unable to administer the admonitions required by a. and b. hereof, the President or Vice-President shall administer such admonitions.

- BL13.02. If discipline against a member proceeds beyond counseling and admonition by the pastor, charges against the accused member(s) that are specific and in writing shall be prepared by member(s) of the Congregation who shall sign the charges as the accuser(s). The written charges shall be filed with the pastor, who shall advise the Church Council of the need to issue a written citation to the accused and the accusers that specifies the time and place of the hearing before the Church Council. The written charges shall accompany the written citation to the accused. A member charged with the offense shall be invited to appear before the Church Council after having received a written citation, at least ten days prior to the meeting. If the member charged with the offense fails to appear at the scheduled hearing, the Church Council may proceed with the hearing and may pass judgment in the member's absence.

- BL13.03. Members of the Church Council who participate in the preparation of the written charges or who present evidence or testimony in the hearing before the Church Council are disqualified from voting upon the question of the guilt of the accused member. Should the allegations be sustained by a two-thirds majority vote of the members of the Church Council who are not disqualified but who are present and voting, and renewed admonition prove ineffectual, the council shall impose one of the following disciplinary actions:
- a. Censure before the council or Congregation;
  - b. Suspension from membership for a definite period of time; or
  - c. Exclusion from membership in this Congregation.

Disciplinary actions b. and c. shall be delivered to the member in writing.

- BL13.04. The member against whom disciplinary action has been taken by the Church Council shall have the right to appeal the decision to the Congregation.

- BL13.05. Disciplinary actions may be reconsidered and revoked by the Church Council upon receipt of:
- a. Evidence that injustice has been done; or
  - b. Evidence of repentance and amendment.
- BL13.06. No member of a Congregation shall be subject to discipline for offenses that the Church Council has previously heard and decided, unless so ordered by the Congregation after an appeal.
- BL13.07. When there is disagreement within this Congregation on a substantive issue that cannot be resolved by the parties, the Church Council will seek help from agencies that specialize in resolving conflict within a Congregation. After consultation, the matter will be referred back to the Church Council which shall call a special Congregational meeting and present recommendations accordingly.
